Presentation about Fernwood Offered at The History Museum

South Bend, IN—At Insights in History, taking place at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, July 6, at The History Museum, Michelle McCoskey, Fernwood Botanical Garden’s Director of Education, explores the past, present, and future of Fernwood and talks about what makes this botanical garden so special. A tour of the Historic Oliver Gardens will be offered. Admission is $3 or $1 for members. Reservations are required by July 5. Insights in History is sponsored by THK Law, LLP.

What started in 1941 as the 12.5 acre country home of Kay and Walter Boydston is now the 105 acre Fernwood Botanical Garden that so many have come to know and love. Tucked away in Niles, Michigan, Fernwood has grown over the years to expand and preserve a variety of natural and cultivated outdoor spaces, complemented by the addition of new engaging and educational indoor spaces.
