Big Daddy Dupree's Broke & Hungry Blues Band Featured at Music in the Gardens

South Bend, IN— Music in the Gardens, presented by The History Museum and 88.1 WVPE, takes place from 5 to 9 p.m. on Friday, July 29, in The History Museum's Historic Oliver Gardens. Taking center stage are Big Daddy Dupree's Broke & Hungry Blues Band, performing all the favorites in blues. Tickets are available for $10 at www.historymuseumSB.org

Big Daddy Dupree's Broke & Hungry Band showcases eight local musicians, most with 25-30 years of experience. They keep their audiences happy with everything from Classic Rock to the Blues. Playing crowd favorites all night long, fans can be assured of hearing favorites like Mustang Sally, Hey Bartender, and more!

The lush grounds of the Oliver Mansion provide a perfect setting for Music in the Gardens. The mansion's surrounding 2 ½ acres of gardens, in full bloom at this time of year, offer a fragrant backdrop to the evening of music. Guests are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets for a perfect spot on the lawn. No chairs will be provided.

The Landing is on deck with food and drink favorites for purchase. No carry-in, please.

During the event, guests are invited to browse through exhibits at the museum, including Unveiled: Wedding Traditions and University of Notre Dame: The Fabric of a Global University.

Corporate packages with tickets, coupons, special seating, recognition from the stage, on-air announcements on WVPE, and more may be purchased for $350 or $500. Email mthompson@historymuseumSB.org or tlabuziowski@wvpe.org or call 235-9664, ext. 231 or 574-262-5822.
