The History Museum Presents Talk on Medicine During the Civil War

South Bend, IN— Archivist Travis Childs describes medical practices during the time of the Civil War at The History Museum’s Insights in History, taking place at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, February 1. Admission is $3. Reservations are required by January 30. Insights in History is sponsored by THK Law, LLP.

A tour of Fighting Fear: Pandemics Past and Present will be offered. The exhibit addresses the fears, prejudices, and resilience of communities as they have faced mass illness. The exhibit is supported by funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities and Indiana Humanities as part of the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021. It is presented in partnership by The History Museum and Saint Mary’s College faculty and students.

Insights in History is a monthly series that features a lecture in conjunction with an exhibit at The History Museum.
